VERA MARSHALL,	)	Docket Number:	20-cv-2021
Plaintiff,	)
	)	District Judge:	The Honorable Joan Lefkow
v.	)
	)	Magistrate Judge:	The Honorable Susan Cox
CREDIT CONTROL, L.L.C.,	)
Defendant.	)

PLAINTIFF'S INITIAL STATUS REPORT

Pursuant to the United States District Court's Third Amended General Order 20-0012 and this Honorable Court's April 28, 2020 Order (D.E. 5), Plaintiff's counsel respectfully files his Initial Status Report as follows:

- 1) Today, Plaintiff's counsel emailed Defendant's counsel to discuss this Status Report.

Although Defendant's counsel has not responded, Plaintiff's counsel can report as follows:

- 2) The parties have not yet engaged in discovery or in settlement efforts, and the parties do not have any unresolved motions.

- 3) Plaintiff proposes the following discovery deadlines within the next 45 days:

Friday June 12, 2020, the parties will electronically serve any first interrogatories / requests for production;

Friday June 19, 2020, the parties will electronically respond to any first interrogatories / requests for production;

Friday June 26, 2020, the parties will electronically serve any second interrogatories / requests for production;

Friday July 3, 2020, the parties will electronically respond to any second interrogatories / requests for production;

Friday July 10, 2020, the parties will schedule any depositions.

The Defendant has not advised Plaintiff whether the Defendant agrees to this schedule.

- 4) At this particular moment in time, Plaintiff does not believe that a telephonic hearing with the judge is necessary and time urgent.

Respectfully submitted,
Plaintiff Vera Marshall's Counsel
North & Sedgwick
